Welcome to our artists' platform and community!

nurart.org is a platform for visual artists and those who are interested in the visual arts from the Persian and Arabian region and the rest of the world. It aims towards illuminating the Middle East from the aspect of contemporary art and its cultural scene, encouraging the artistic performance of the actors, and maintaining lively discourse.

nurart.org is to bundle up artistic energies and playfully prepare them for different target groups and scenarios. It addresses artists as well as people with special interest in the arts, gallery-owners, and trustees. nurart.org is to gradually develop a vivid community along with the creative contributions of its users and be taken care of by its editors.
